WELCOME

Our church is very happy to welcome to our pulpit the Rev. John Collier of the First Baptist Church of Cabot, Ark. We certainly appreciate his kindness and interest in coming to us this morning. Bette Ishibashi, who recently spoke to his congregation, was given a cordial welcome there.

Y. D. FELLOWSHIP

This evening the YPCF will have a music hour under the chairmanship of Yuriko Uyehara. The program will include classical records and religious music.

HAPPINESS HOUR

"Peter's escape from prison" will be the subject of discussion this Wednesday night at the Happiness Hour. Please read Acts, chapter 12 and bring your Bibles. PSH # 2.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Loyal Partner's Class of the First Christian Church of Joplin, Missouri sent us New Testaments and church papers. With it, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Newman wrote, "In the small contribution we have put our love. It is the love of Christ whereby we are brothers." We appreciate this very much.

• OUR OWN •

Bette Ishibashi spoke at the Baptist Union Student Conference held at Conway, Ark. last week. This was a state wide student's gathering with an attendance of 300 representing about twelve colleges. She left yesterday for Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

COMING

Next Sunday, our speaker will be Dr. Maxfield Garrett who will speak on the Education Week theme. He was with us in January and told us of his experiences in Japan. Until recently he has been working among the nisei in Houston, Tex.
